Final Note by the FIRST.....Councillor.

Subject:— Admission of retired Magistrates and Munsiffs of British India as legal practitioners in Mysore.

P. paper under disposal.

13 The Chief× Court proposed that they may be empowered to admit as Advocates or Pleaders in Mysore retired officers who had served as Magistrates or Munsiffs in British India and who were in the opinion of the Chief Court fit to be enrolled.

14 Under the Rules of Practice, any retired officer of Mysore or of Coorg who has been a Munsiff or a First Class Magistrate for 5 years is entitled to be enrolled as an Advocate of the Chief Court and I am of opinion that there is no harm in allowing retired officers of British India the same privilege as has already been accorded to officers of Coorg. These men who come to settle in Bangalore are not likely to be many, nor are they likely to get much practice. It is generally for the sake of getting a place in society that they wish to have a business name. The alteration proposed by the Chief Court is not therefore likely to bring in any appreciable number of recruits for the Bar.

Flag Z.

15 In Madras× , however, retired officers as such are not allowed to be enrolled as Vakils and as the Bar in Mysore is said to be already over-crowded, the Dewan and the Second Councillor came to the conclusion that the proposal of the Chief Court may be negatived. The matter is not one of much importance either way and the decision of the majority of the Council may be approved.

No: 1614/III

Chief Court of Mysore,

Bangalore, dated 14th November 1912

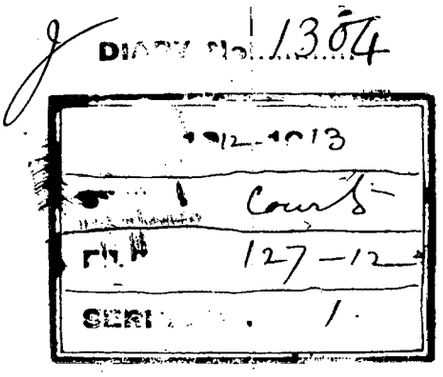
14/11/12

From,

The Registrar of the

Chief Court of Mysore,

Bangalore.



To,

The Secretary to Government,

General and Revenue Departments.

Sir,

Adverting to the Rules relating to the qualification and admission of Advocates and Pleaders I am directed to state that the absence of a provision therein for admitting qualified retired officers who have served as Magistrates or Munsiffs in British India as Advocates or Pleaders here is felt when competent and capable retired officers apply for enrolment as such. The Judges are of opinion that the Rules may be amended in such a manner as to give the Chief Court discretion to admit really deserving men whenever they think fit to do so.

I am therefore to request the sanction of Government to the following addition being made to Rule III.

III A. "Persons possessing qualifications similar to those mentioned in I e who have retired on pension after service in British India, may, at the discretion of the Chief Court, be admitted as Advocates or 1st Grade Pleaders".

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant.

Registrar.
